

Air 1 has been an awesome and crucial part of my daily life by lifting my spirits with inspiring music and encouraging words. If Air 1 were displaced it would take away a part of my life and many others who rely on it for direction and guidance. It is in the public's interest because it does no harm and can serve as a refuge for those who feel the pressures and hurt of daily life.